Minor Hotels will be debuting its Tivoli Hotels & Resorts brand in Italy in July with the addition of a property in Portopiccolo, near Trieste, Italy.

The Tivoli Portopiccolo Sistiana Resort, a former member of the Marriott Luxury Collection, is part of the Portopiccolo mixed-use complex owned by the Porto Piccolo Fund, managed by Investire SGR (Group Banca Finnat), an independent Italian asset management company.

The five-star 58-room Tivoli Portopiccolo Sistiana Resort, set to open this month, is located in the Duino Cliffs Nature Reserve on the Gulf of Trieste, within 20 minutes' drive of Trieste Airport.

Amenities include four restaurants, two bars, six swimming pools, a beach club and an in-hotel wellness and fitness center.

A 38,750-square-foot spa features eight treatment rooms, outdoor and indoor pools, saunas and steam rooms.

The Tivoli Portopiccolo also offers 12,916 square feet of meetings space, with state-of-the-art technology.
